WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- ✓ Assess data and signature exposure against a defensible view of quantum timelines.
- ✓ Design migration governance aligned with enterprise risk management.
- ✓ Build a phased budget and define the skills needed to deliver the program.
- ✓ Assess vendor readiness and communicate priorities, funding and progress to the board.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

CISOs, deputy CISOs, security directors, heads of security architecture and senior risk leaders responsible for cryptographic exposure.

PREREQUISITES

No formal prerequisite. Designed for experienced security leaders.

Why Quantum Academy

Quantum Academy draws on Quantum Ready by Marin Ivezic and faculty experience designing and governing enterprise migration programs.

What you will study

A focused curriculum for informed professional decisions.

01 Threat Assessment for Your Organization

Map confidentiality and signature exposure across your estate. Evaluate published timeline research and connect quantum risk to existing enterprise risk management.

02 Regulatory and Compliance Assessment

Identify relevant government, sector, contractual and insurance expectations. Map them to actions and develop a compliance calendar for the migration program.

03 Program Design and Budget

Define governance, phases, staffing and vendor strategy. Assess cost drivers, contingency and funding arguments for finance leaders and boards.

04 Board Communication and Ongoing Governance

Present the threat, exposure, plan and funding request. Define milestones, reporting measures and ongoing monitoring as capabilities and migration progress change.
